Velké Pavlovice Wine Region

The fertile plains of central part of the Moravia wine region, stretching from Brno to Břeclav, are one of the hottest and most sunny points of the Czech Republic. Thanks to ideal position, favourable climatic and soil conditions the wine was grown here as soon as in the Great Moravian era. The region is a heart of red wine growing in Moravia, mainly such varieties as Frank and Blue Portugal varieties.

The history of cellars in Čejkovice is connected with the arrival of secret order of Temple knights in the 13th century. The local extensive wine cellars have no analogy in our territory. Velké Bílovice is the largest wine village in the Czech Republic. There are more than 650 wine cellars, the largest ones being the Haban cellars. You can visit so called Blue Hills - Velké Pavlovice, Bořetice, Vrbice, Kobylí and Němčičky - to enjoy wine, relax and entertainment.

In wine villages of the Velké Pavlovice region you can find many cellar lanes with various cellars - from the historical ones up to the modern architecture. So called TOP cellar lane in the area can be found in the village of Bořetice, in the popular rag Free Republic of Kraví hora. As from June 2013 you will have a chance to visit the exhibition exposition directly in a wine cellar.
