Valtice

Title: Valtice

Description:

Part of the Lednice-Valtice area, the town centre was declared a historic zone; a valuable Baroque church of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary is in the square. Baroque chateau (D. Marinelli), one of most remarkable buildings in Moravia, a national cultural monument. Former residence of the Lichtenstein family. Period interiors, ornate Baroque chapel, reconstructed court of honour with fountain and statues. Extensive service buildings around, the Valtice Wine Markets take place in the riding school and stables every year. The garden was extended and rebuilt into a landscape park boasting a collection of rare trees and shrubs. The chateau also contains the National Wine Centre with the National Show of Wines of the Czech Republic. Nature trail around the Valtice vineyards and wine cellars (Cross-vaulted Cellar - Křížový sklep). Museum of gardening and the environment.
